

Architect Profile

- Technical and creative skills to design structures that suit the requirements of their clients
- Design new buildings, extensions or alterations to existing structures
- Advise on the restoration and conservation of old properties
- Working on both individual or large development schemes
- Responsibilities can extend to the design of surrounding landscapes and spaces
- Working closely with clients and construction professionals, including surveyors and engineers
- Ensuring that projected designs match requirements and are functional, safe and economic

Potential salary

£30,000 -
£90,000

