

Building Surveyor Profile

Working on a range of property types, including: multi-million-pound structures to modest adaptations and repairs

Completion of detailed reports

Identification of defects and advisement of repairs, maintenance and restoration options

Vast knowledge of existing buildings, architecturally or historically important buildings or new builds

The ability to implement preventative measures to keep buildings in good condition

Knowledge of sustainable methods

Potential salary

£16,000 -

£35,000

