

CHARITY

CHARITY

Why be involved?

-  Don't let your summer breaks go to waste, working with charities present a great opportunity to develop your skills whilst making a real difference
-  Many fields of work have charities set up to help them achieve their aims, e.g. Cancer Research
-  Develop a sense of achievement by contributing to local projects
-  Be part of a great cause, a lot of students fundraise for excellent charities
-  Develop yourself by working in different situations

CHARITY GAP YEARS

Give Yourself Life Changing Experiences

- Volunteer in some of the world's most amazing locations and have the experience of a lifetime
- Realise a life's dream by doing something you'd always wanted whilst you have the opportunity
- These are more accessible than you'd think, many organisations will help you to plan your fundraising targets
- For some ideas check out gvi, Project Trust and UK Projects Abroad

WORKING FOR A CHARITY

If you like the sound of this so far, you might want a career working for a charity, here are some examples:

Project Coordinator

Public Speakers

Caseworkers

Marketing Officer

Fundraiser

Administrator

Data Analyst

Finance Officer

A lot of the skills required to work for a charity are the same as for any other organisation. If you haven't already, check out the transferable skills stall!